Notice regarding change in sector classification to which our stock belongs

The sector classification to which the Company's stock belong is currently classified as "Construction Business" at Tokyo Stock Exchange and Nagoya Stock Exchange. Today, we would like to announce that the sector classification will be changed to "Real Estate Business" as decided by Securities Identification Code Committee. In accordance with this change, the stock section of newspapers, etc. will be changed to "Real Estate Business", while there will be no change in securities code (1878).

1. Change

Current sector	Sector after change
Construction	Real Estate

2. Reason for Change

Since the Company's primary business is construction of rental housings for the effective use of land, it has been classified as a "Construction Business" from the time it was listed on Nagoya Stock Exchange in 1989. Since then, the number of rental housings under management has increased year by year and the sales of our real estate business has increased. As a result, we have met the criteria for changing sector classification as stipulated in the "Guidelines for Handling Sector Classifications" established by the Securities Identification Code Committee, and we have now been changed to the "Real Estate Business".

3. Date of Change

October 3, 2022
